NEW-YORK CITY.
The rage for jewelry in imitation of insects of all kinds always looks up during the summer months.
Six hundred dollars endows a scholarship, $60,000 a native professorship, and $30,000 an American professorship in the Wiley Institute (Methodist), Peoria, Ill. M. L. Taft, treasurer of Wiley Institute, this city, will receive contributions.

The building operations on the west side of Central Park, this summer, have left few of the "quaint" little shanties that were plentiful here not long ago. The contrast which the remaining ones present to their new surroundings is all the more striking.

The law against throwing banana peel on the sidewalk and pavement seems to be pretty freely ignored nowadays.

A fakir at Coney Island was caught working a lunger the other day that innocently registered the exhalations of his customers, but responded to suction with a measure of malt whiskey.

The Harlem branch of the Young Men's Christian Association has just completed arrangements for opening their new building in September.

The Rambling Club connected with the Young Men's Christian Association visited yesterday the points of interest on Staten Island, including Fort Wadsworth. The party numbered over one hundred.

By mistake the name of Coroner Levy was used in connection with the Levy inquest in yesterday's Tribune. It should have been, of course, Coroner Messemmer.

The parish of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, in Eighty-second-st., east of First-ave., which has been under the control of the Jesuits for seventeen years, will hereafter be under the charge of secular priests who speak the German language. The present pastor, the Rev. Joseph Busan, S. J., will leave of his charge to-day.

"Crooks" frequently sit together these warm evenings on the parapets overlooking Blackwell's Island, and recount their adventures and their experiences while inmates of the penitentiary opposite.

From the great number of campaign handbills sold, it is apparent that voters are determined to elect the Presidential ticket with clear heads.

The mass of rocks at First-ave. and Fifty-first-st., rising to the height of the neighboring buildings, forms a fine play-house for the children living in the neighborhood.

Fifty-first-st. is being repaved between Fifth and Sixth aves., and Dr. Hall's church and St. Luke's Hospital will rejoice when the work is done.

They are called by the plebeian name of "swimming baths" along the Hudson and East rivers, but in Forty-fifth-st. near Fifth-ave. there is an aristocratic "natatorium."

The retail druggists without soda water fountains complain that at this season of the year their main occupation is selling postage stamps.

It is noticeable that wherever the sign "To lease for private residence or business purposes" appears on a Fifth-ave. mansion, the "private residence" is invariably painted in smaller letters than the "business purposes."

Important repairs are being made at the main entrance of the Hotel St. Marc by the new proprietor, J. A. Nutter. Meanwhile, the thirty-ninth-st. entrance is used.

The once handsome brownstone house at the north-west corner of Fifth-ave. and thirtieth-st. is being torn down to make way for a ten-story apartment building.

Some tennis suits give their wearers the appearance of escaped convicts.

There is up town a Chinese laundry next door to a store where religious books are sold. This goes to prove the truth of the adage that "cleanliness is next to godliness."

The "Apprentices' Library" in East Sixteenth-st. has over 55,000 readers.

"Lemonade" is the novel way in which a downtown curstome merchant advertises his stock in trade.

An early riser yesterday saw a milkman and a spring-cart driver engaged in subdued but earnest conversation.

A porcelain sign ever do for us, suggest? adorns the show-case of a Warren-st. store.

Two hundred and sixty-two licenses were issued last week for $600.25; water rates, $178,740.00.

The Commissioners of Accounts have received an order signed by the Mayor directing them to examine the books, records and accounts of the Aqueduct Commission. Commissioner Shearman said yesterday that the examination would be begun to-morrow in the office of the Aqueduct Commissioners, in the Stewart Building.

Handsome cabinet portraits of James G. Blaine are on view at many of the elevated railroad stations.

Balloon men are a drug in the market, yet they continue to rise each day.

The small boy lighted his bonfires during the last few evenings in many of the streets in honor of the Fourth of July.

District Assembly No. 51, Knights of Labor, is arranging for the establishment, in Patterson, N. J., of a co-operative factory for the manufacture of overalls.

Captain Ryan, of the XVIIIth Avenue District, has a hundred men under him who voted for Henry George. He says they will support Harrison and Morton.

If ever Dr. McGilgan's followers were inclined to "luck" they will surely do it now. Before entering Cooper Union to hear anti-poverty denunciations they will have to pass under a big democratic banner which stretches across the street.

John Devoey has organized an Irish-American Anti-Cleveland club in the ANA District, at No. 1,551 Second-ave., with 112 members.

Judge John L. Wheeler, of New-Jersey, will deliver a public lecture on "The Future of the Nation," at the "Grand Protection for American Industries," The lecture will be delivered under the auspices of the American Protective Tariff Association.

While James H. Dwyer, of Jersey City Heights, was assisting in unloading the new steamship City of New-York, at about 9 o'clock last night, he was struck on the head by a broken chain and knocked down the freight gangway to the dock. He received a scalp wound and was removed to St. Vincent's Hospital.

The death was announced in the Produce Exchange yesterday of George F. Withers, of the firm of S. Withers & Co., of New-York. He was only thirty-one years old. He left here for England, his native country, a short time ago for the benefit of his health. He was unmarried.

James Harring, who, while driving an ice wagon on Friday night, ran over Louisa Doan, of No. 126 Baxter-st., at the same time knocking the nine-year-old son of "Dan" Driscoll from her arms and killing him, was held in the Tombs Court yesterday on two charges, one of assault on the woman and the other of homicide, to await the action of the coroner.

An object that attracts much attention at the Eden Musee is the life-size figure of General Phil Sheridan. The Hungarian Orchestra will give selected concert to-day, and the attractions of this cool resort are set for half the week-day rate.

Permits for twenty new brick buildings were granted last week, to cost $749,100, and for thirty-three frame structures, the cost of which is stated as $219,570. Permits were also granted for alterations, to cost $22,605.

A platform on which were seated 200 or 300 persons at A. Kleinschmidt's park, No. 1,087 Broadway, broke down Friday evening. William Wasserman, of No. 385 Broadway, was killed, his leg broken, and he was taken to St. Catherine's Hospital.

The Post Office was closed yesterday from 10 to 2, on account of General Sheridan's funeral.

G. C. Martin, engineer and superintendent of the Brooklyn Bridge, has issued a circular to all the employees of the bridge prohibiting the reading of papers or other printed matter while on duty. Violation of this rule will be punished by suspension, and a second offense by discharge.

Philip Rollins, aged twenty, made complaint in Justice Walsh's court yesterday of assault and battery against Edward Bartlett, of No. 676 Baiter-st. He had called to see Bartlett's sister and had been "fired."

Before Judge Bartlett, in the Supreme Court, yesterday, Theodore B. Jones, of No. 252 Lewis-st., sued Dr. Edward Maloney, of No. 111 Third Second-st., for breach of contract in failing to attend the wife of the plaintiff, thereby, it is said, causing the death of a child. The amount of damage claimed is $15,000.

A LARGE AND PLEASANT EXCURSION.
The thirteenth annual excursion of the employees of the Clark O. N. T. Thread Works, of Newark, to Asbury Park and Ocean Grove yesterday, was, and exceedingly large one. Fully 3,404 men, women, and children enjoyed the treat of their employer. The great majority were young women, who looked exceedingly attractive and created a little furor at the seashore. Eighty-five cars on the Central Railroad were required in the transportation of the big party. The day was spent in rambling, bathing, dancing,
